Design Your Own "Scream" Face

The Scream

Edvard Munch

(1893)

Fun Facts

It's Not Screaming!

The figure isn't screaming — it's covering its ears because the world around it feels overwhelming!

It's a Feeling

Munch said the idea came to him when he felt a "great scream in nature." He was showing an emotion, not a person.

Painted Four Times

Munch made four versions — in paint, pastel, and crayon!

Fun Facts

Background Was Real

the swirling sky was inspired by a real sunset Munch saw while walking in Oslo, Norway.

Expressionism Style

The painting is part of Expressionism, where artists show how things feel more than how they look.
